

„After 12 years I am now part of the global Master Data Management team. I am very pleased that ASK Chemicals gave me the chance to make this change.“

*Jitka Fialova, Master Data Management,
ASK Chemicals*

SHAPING THE FUTURE TOGETHER!

To provide active support for our team of experts we are looking for the Wülfrath location for a Working Student Supply Chain Performance Management

Your Tasks

- Recording and target definition of logistics processes as well as preparation of process documentation for management system
- Identification of concepts and processes to ensure the realization of the target processes
- Preparation of training documents for training coordination and execution
- Harmonization of existing ASK documents for European supply chain and logistics departments: status quo analysis and target definition with all relevant ASK stakeholders to enable the implementation in SAP in collaboration with the IT department
- Support the logistics department with freight data, tender and cost management

Your profile

- Current Bachelor or Master studies in management or industrial engineering
- Ability to communicate and work in a team
- Fluent in German and good English skills
- Good Microsoft 365 skills
- Strong analytical and conceptual skills
- Well-structured method of work and proactive approach

For additional details or further clarification please contact Mrs. Nadine Ladnar or the HR department. If you are interested in this position, please send us your application until September 16, 2022.

Wülfrath, 07.09.2022